

MEDIA RELEASE

11 January 2011

Primecare shortlisted for prestigious patient safety award

For the second year running, Primecare has been shortlisted for a prestigious HSJ Patient Safety Award.

Primecare's Next Steps in Out of Hours Care project was selected as a finalist for the encouraging staff to get more engaged in patient safety by recognising it, reporting it and making improvements.

This was entered in the 'Communicating safety award category' and the winner will be announced at the awards ceremony on 9 March.