

DUDLEY GP SURGERY CELEBRATES 1000TH PATIENT

The 1000th patient registered with Kates Hill Surgery in Dudley was invited to a special celebration event to mark the GP practice's achievement at having over 1000 patients registered.

Kates Hill Surgery on Wolverton Road opened its doors on 1 April 2010 and has grown from a patient list size of zero, to caring for over 1000 Dudley residents in just 18 months.

The 1000th patient registered with the GP practice on 10th November 2011.

Dr P D Gupta who set up the GP practice in partnership with Primecare, on behalf of Dudley Primary Care Trust, said:

"I am delighted that we have reached this milestone. Patients receive a fantastic service at Kates Hill which is demonstrated by the numbers of people who have registered so far.

"As well as being open during the day, our GP practice is open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, and Saturday mornings, which means that patients can book an appointment at a time that suits them.

"Our highly skilled team also run health and wellbeing checks at special clinics across Dudley, providing health advice and support.

"I am confident that our registered patient numbers will continue to grow as more and more people become aware of this first-class GP practice."

Kates Hill Surgery is sited on Wolverton Road and is currently accepting new patients.

Patients wishing to register can call the practice on 0300 555 0305, or visit
