

Patient Safety awards shortlist

For the second year running, Primecare has been shortlisted for a HSJ Patient Safety Award. Primecare's Next Steps in Out of Hours Care project is about encouraging staff to get more engaged in patient safety by recognising it, reporting it and making improvements. This was entered into the Communicating safety award category and the winner will be announced at the awards ceremony on 9 March.